DETAILED ACTION

37 CFR 1.126

1. The numbering of claims is not in accordance with 37 CFR 1.126 which requires the original numbering of the claims to be preserved throughout the prosecution. When claims are canceled, the remaining claims must not be renumbered. When new claims are presented, they must be numbered consecutively beginning with the number next following the highest numbered claims previously presented (whether entered or not).
2. Misnumbered claims 31 been renumbered 30, and misnumbered claim 30 was renumbered 31.

Election/Restriction

3. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-69 drawn modified siRNA, or self-complementary oligomers, and compositions thereof, classified in class 536, subclass 22.1.
 - II. Claims 70-75 drawn to a method of modulating the expression of a target nucleic acid in a cell, and a method of treating or preventing a disease or condition or disorder associated with a target nucleic acid classified in class 435, subclass 375.
4. In the event of rejoinder, the requirement for restriction between the product claims and the rejoined process claims will be withdrawn, and the rejoined process claims will be fully examined for patentability in accordance with 37 CFR 1.104. Thus, to be allowable, the rejoined claims must meet all criteria for patentability including the requirements of 35 U.S.C. 101, 102, 103, and 112. Until an elected product claim is found allowable, an otherwise proper restriction requirement between product claims and process claims may be maintained. Withdrawn process claims that are not commensurate in scope with an allowed product claim will not be rejoined. See "Guidance on Treatment of Product and Process Claims in light of In re Ochiai, In re Brouwer and 35 U.S.C. § 103(b)," 1184 O.G. 86 (March 26, 1996). Additionally, in order to retain the right to rejoinder in accordance with the above policy, Applicant is advised that the process claims should be amended during prosecution either to maintain dependency on the product claims or to otherwise include the limitations of the product claims. Failure to do so may result in a loss of the right to rejoinder.

5. Inventions I and II are related as product and process of use. The inventions can be shown to be distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) the process for using the product as claimed can be practiced with another materially different product or (2) the product as claimed can be used in a materially different process of using that product (MPEP § 806.05(h)). In the instant case the method of modulating the expression of a target nucleic acid in a cell can be accomplished using an antisense oligomer comprised of deoxynucleotides, which comprises a sequence that is complementary to the target nucleic acid. Moreover, the product of invention I can be used in an assay to screen for inhibitors of a target nucleic acid.

6. This application contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species of the claimed invention:

- (A) Claims 2-16, 33-45, and 62-69 drawn to morpholino modified siRNA.
- (B) Claims 2-10, 17-26, 46-55, and 62-69 drawn to PNA modified siRNA.
- (C) Claims 2-10, 27, 56, and 62-69 drawn to a PNA mimic modified siRNA.
- (D) Claims 2-10, 28, 57, 67-68 drawn to siRNA, modified with at least one internucleoside linkage comprised of a hexose sugar and an amide.

Art Unit: 1635

(E) Claims 2-10, 29, 31, 58, 67-68 drawn to siRNA, modified with at least one nucleotide having a modification comprised of cyclohexenyl nucleic acid.

(F) Claims 2-10, 30, 59-60, and 62-69 drawn to siRNA, modified with an acyclic backbone moiety.

In the instant case, the various species of siRNA molecule comprises a distinct chemical structure that requires a separate search and consideration of the prior art. The search of each individual species presents a burden to the examiner since each species requires a separate text/structure search and separate consideration of the prior art.

7. Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claims 1, 32, 60, and 70-75 are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.

8. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

9. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
